Care

gostandrew.com/Support

Our prayers are with Tori LaRae's brother, Lance Jones; Stacie Wheelis' step-mother, Jane Lane; and with Ellen Latimer.

Our sympathy is with Missy Washeck on the death of her mother; and with Linda Edwards on the death of her nephew.

Words for Meditation

"He who is aching in every limb, worn out by the effort of a day of work...bears the reality of the universe in his flesh like a thorn. The difficulty for him is to look and to love. If he succeeds, he loves the Real." ~ Simone Weil

Scripture

Exodus 32:1-4, 7-12, 14, 19-20a

St. Andrew

Our Vision: To eradicate social isolation and disconnection by practicing the faithful presence of the incarnate Christ.

Current Sermon Series

Walks of Faith

"Life is either a daring adventure," said Helen Keller, "or nothing at all." The same could be said of faith. To grow deeper in faith, you must go deeper into the unknown, into vulnerability, and into risk. Jesus never said, "Come and stay put." Instead, he said, "Come and follow me."

In this sermon series, we'll look at some of the epic walks of faith in Scripture and learn what it means to join the daring adventure of journeying with God.

You Belong Here.

St. Andrew is an open, affirming, inclusive congregation that welcomes saints and sinners, believers and skeptics, the lost and the found, the wonderers and the wanderers, families of all shapes and sizes, and people from every point along life's journey.

No matter who you are, where you've been, what you believe, or whether you even believe at all, you are welcome here.

We embrace the message of Jesus that everyone is loved by God and affirm that all persons are of sacred worth. Regardless of your age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, education, marital status, physical and mental capacities, or faith history—you belong here. Just as you are.
