Words for Meditation

"Jesus believed the way to save the world was not by inaction in the name of unity and peace, but by courageous action that resists the human impulse to meet violence with violence in the name of God's loving aims."

~ Rev. Mark Feldmeir

Scripture

Matthew 5:38–41

Today's Takeaways

1. _____ assumes that even our _____ can be transformed by the power of _____.
2. Nonviolence is _____ for courageous people.
3. Nonviolent resistance begins with the _____ enough to claim our _____ and _____ our _____.

Today's Questions

1. Do you believe people can change? Is it more likely that a person will change by the power of love or by the power of violence?
2. When was the last time you encountered a person or a group of persons who intimidated or bullied you in some way? How did you respond?

FIGHT LIKE JESUS

The Six Principles of Nonviolence

St. Andrew

Our Vision: Bringing more love, justice and community into the world.
Our Mission: To love God with our heart, soul, mind and strength, and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Current Sermon Series:

Fight Like Jesus: The Six Principles of Nonviolence
September 8 – October 13, 2024

In this six-week series, we'll explore the six principles of nonviolence developed by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Interpreted through a uniquely biblical lens, we'll discover key insights about how to apply these principles to our daily lives as we seek, like Jesus, to be peacemakers and bridge-builders in an increasingly divided world.

You Belong Here.

St. Andrew is an open, affirming, inclusive congregation that welcomes saints and sinners, believers and skeptics, the lost and the found, the wonderers and the wanderers, families of all shapes and sizes, and people from every point along life's journey.

No matter who you are, where you've been, what you believe, or whether you even believe at all, you are welcome here.

We embrace the message of Jesus that everyone is loved by God and affirm that all persons are of sacred worth. Regardless of your age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, education, marital status, physical and mental capacities, or faith history—you belong here. Just as you are.

Welcome home.
