Current Sermon Series

Dispatches from Cell 92: Bonhoeffer on Faith and Resistance

Some call him a martyr. Others, a spy and assassin. But before his arrest and execution by the Nazis in 1945, Dietrich Bonhoeffer was a pastor and theologian whose writings on Christianity have become more relevant today than ever. In this six-part series, we'll explore Bonhoeffer's thoughts on grace, faith, responsibility, and resistance for clues about how we might live out our faith in ways that make a difference in today's world. The series will include an all-church book study and documentary film discussion.

Bonhoeffer All-Church Book Study

This seven session class is designed to accompany our sermon series, Dispatches from Cell 92: Bonhoeffer on Faith and Resistance. Each week, participants will explore sections of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's book, The Cost of Discipleship, that align with the sermon theme for that week. Participants will also view and discuss a documentary on Bonhoeffer's life and ministry. Register at gostandrew.com/studies.
