Words for Meditation

"We should always assume that we are exposed to the imitative gaze of those around us."

~ Rev. Mark Feldmeir

Scripture

Philippians 3:17–4:1

Today's Questions

1. Can you think of someone whose life is worthy of imitation? What qualities or characteristics do you find most compelling about them?
2. What's the difference between knowing "about" God and knowing God? Why is the latter of the two preferable?

Today's Takeaways

1. Faith is a _____ and not just a _____.
2. Someone is _____.
3. Live a life worthy of _____.

The Beautiful Empty

St. Andrew

Our Vision: Bringing more love, justice and community into the world.
Our Mission: To love God with our heart, soul, mind and strength, and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Lenten Sermon Series

The Beautiful Empty: Lent 2025

Blaise Pascal once spoke of the “God-shaped vacuum” in the heart of every person that can only be filled by God. Yet we spend so much of our lives trying to fill that vacuum with everything but God. When we feel worthless, we seek validation from our work. When we suffer from loneliness, we turn to relationships to save us. When we experience boredom, we binge on entertainment. When we feel overwhelmed or self-conscious, we reach for altered states.

The God-shaped hole only grows deeper and wider as we fill it with the things that do not satisfy. But the season of Lent invites us to let go of our attachments and dependencies, emptying ourselves of all our cheap substitutes for God, so we can finally see ourselves for who we really are—needy, imperfect, unfinished, still-becoming people in need of a tender, patient, gracious God. It’s only by experiencing our emptiness that the God-shaped hole can finally be filled, healed, and blessed by that which truly satisfies.
